

Fellsway

David Gay

When win - ter bows her hoar - ry head and wil - der winds lay low, A sol - emn sound a -
With - in their crys - tal pri - sons closed the trees sing out in sleep, Where bright - ness of the So sound with - in the dream of life in flesh - ly man - tles caged, We must live out our

When win - ter bows her hoar - ry head and wil - der winds lay low, A sol - emn sound a -
With - in their crys - tal pri - sons closed the trees sing out in sleep, Where bright - ness of the So sound with - in the dream of life in flesh - ly man - tles caged, We must live out our

- ri - ses soft where woods lie un - der snow. When sun - light strikes from bril - liant skies, a youn - ger sun calls vi - sions from the deep. They dream of green - er, sof - ter days, old win - ter here where storm and calm are staged. Yet of - ten in the shift - ing scene the

- ri - ses soft where woods lie un - der snow. When sun - light strikes from bril - liant skies, a youn - ger sun calls vi - sions from the deep. They dream of green - er, sof - ter days, old
win - ter here where storm and calm are staged. Yet of - ten in the shift - ing scene the

col - der blue than stone, A shi - ver seiz - es an - cient trees whose dream - ing limbs make moan.
feasts of sun and rain, With - in the night of win - ter's cold the sum - mer lives a - gain.
earth - ly cur - tain parts And im - a - ges of wak - ing life strike songs with - in our hearts.

col - der blue than stone, A shi - ver seiz - es an - cient trees whose dream - ing limbs make moan.
feasts of sun and rain, With - in the night of win - ter's cold the sum - mer lives a - gain.
earth - ly cur - tain parts And im - a - ges of wak - ing life strike songs with - in our hearts.