

Traveller's Prayer

John Renbourn

Praise to the moon, bright queen of the skies, Jewel of the black night, the light of our eyes,

The first system of musical notation for 'Traveller's Prayer' is in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The lyrics are: 'Praise to the moon, bright queen of the skies, Jewel of the black night, the light of our eyes,'.

Bright-er than star-light, whit-er than snow, Look down on us in the dark-ness be-low. If

The second system of musical notation starts at measure 9. The lyrics are: 'Bright-er than star-light, whit-er than snow, Look down on us in the dark-ness be-low. If'.

well you should find us then well let us stay, Be it se-ven times bet-ter when you make your way, Be it

The third system of musical notation starts at measure 17. The lyrics are: 'well you should find us then well let us stay, Be it se-ven times bet-ter when you make your way, Be it'.

se-ven times bet-ter when we greet the dawn, So light up our way and keep us from all

The fourth system of musical notation starts at measure 25. The lyrics are: 'se-ven times bet-ter when we greet the dawn, So light up our way and keep us from all'.

harm. Give strength to the wear-y, give alms to the poor, To the taint-ed and need-y five

The fifth system of musical notation starts at measure 32. The lyrics are: 'harm. Give strength to the wear-y, give alms to the poor, To the taint-ed and need-y five'.

39

sen-ses re-store, Give song to our voic-es, give sight to our eyes, To see the sun bow as the new moon shall rise. Cast your eyes down-wards to our dwel-ling place, Three times for fa-vour and three times for grace, O-ver the dark clouds your face for to see, To ban-ish mis-for-tune and keep Trin-i-ty. In the name of our La-dy, bright maid-en of grace, In the name of the King of the 71

47

55

63

Ci-ty of Peace, In the name of our Sav-iour, who hung on the tree, All praise to the moon, for e-

79

- ter-ni-ty.